The Central Connecticut Paralegal Association, Inc. (CCPA) was incorporated as a non-profit organization in November 1982.

The goals of CCPA are:

- To promote the common business interests of persons engaged in the paralegal profession;
- To offer continuing legal education to paralegals;
- To evaluate and define paralegal roles in various sectors delivering legal services and to educate both employers and consumers to these roles;
- To maintain mutually beneficial working relationships with local, state, and national bar associations and other paralegal associations;
- To maintain academic relationships with state-accredited academic institutions offering legal education programs or courses for paralegals.
